

Social Media and Policing Event

Wednesday, 8th February 2017

The Hub Theatre, The Open University, Milton Keynes campus, MK7 6AA

- 9:30 Registration with refreshments and an opportunity for participants to view posters on the research and education activities of the Centre.
- 10:00 Welcome by the Dr Steven Chase, Chair of the Policing Consortium.
- 10:10 Social Media and the Coproduction of Safety: Professor Albert Meijer, Utrecht University
- 11:00 Break
- 11:10 Detecting grooming behaviour on social media: Harith Alani, Knowledge Media Institute, Open University
- 11:25 Radicalisation detection on social media: Hassan Saif, Knowledge Media Institute, Open University
- 11:40 Policing engagement via social media plus demonstration: Miriam Fernandez, Knowledge Media Institute, Open University
- 12:00 Police use of social media – Having a Kodak moment? Nick Keane, College of Policing
- 12:50 Lunch with networking
- 13:40 FaceLift: Handling Facebook Evidence using Verifiable Limited Disclosure, LVD demonstration and evaluation exercise: Prof. Dr. Bashar A. Nuseibeh, Dr. Thein Than Tun, Dr. Blaine A. Price, Dr. Arosha K. Bandara, and Dr. Yijun Yu, Faculty of Maths, Computing and Technology, Open University
- 14:50 Social Media in Citizen Enquiry and Public Engagement: Hayley Ness, Faculty of Social Sciences, Open University
- 15:05 A Content Analysis of Police Facebook pages: Ailsa Strathie, Faculty of Social Sciences, Open University
- 15:20 Are you talking to me? A qualitative study of Facebook use by two police forces: Zoe Walkington, Faculty of Social Sciences, Open University
- 15:35 Social Media and Citizen Inquiry: Catriona Havard & Professor Graham Pike Faculty of Social Sciences, Open University
- 15:50 Plenary
- 16:00 Close of conference. Tea and coffee on departure.